Cooper Union for Over Thirty Years.

New York, March 29.—John C. Zachos, curator of Cooper Union, died to-day at his home in this city. He was born in Constantinople. He came to this country at an early age. He was graduated from Kenyon college, of Ohio. In 1883, he became professor of English in Antioch college, Yellow Springs, O. In 1862, he entered the services of the educational commission of New York, whose purpose was to send men and women to look after the interests and education of the freedmen of the South. The same year he was appointed acting surgeon in the United States army and was assigned to the superintendency of the Freedmen's Hospital at Beaufort, and command of Paris Island, in Beaufort bay. He resigned from this position two years later to enter the Unitarian pulpit at West Newton, Mass. In 1886, he accepted the chair of natural history in the theological school at Pa. Five years later he was invited by Peter Cooper to become the curator of Cooper Union, which position he held up to the time of his death. He was one of the organizers of the Ohio Society of New York, as well as one of the founders of the Beta Theta Pi Society, which was founded in 1881. He was the author of several works on teaching.

Tremendous Concours

lowed the body to the Grave.
Omaha, Neb., March 20.—The body of the late Mrs. John M. Thurston was followed to the grave by a tremendous concourse of people this afternoon. All Omaha was there and many from Nebraska and other states were in attendance. The body was brought from Washington in a special car this morning.

At the house private services were held after which the casket was removed to St. Sankts church. The Rev. Dr. Thomas J. Mackey presided over the rendition of the Protestant Episcopal ritual for the burial of the dead. In his sermon the minister referred feelingly to the mission of Mrs. Thurston to Cuba, which cost her life. He paid a high tribute to her character as a woman and to the intense patriotism and human inspiration that led her to accompany her husband on the trip from which he returned to bury her.

Funeral of Franklyn Warner Lee Poet, Novelist and Dramatist.
Largely Attended.

St. Paul, Minn., March 20.—A special train of St. Paul newspaper men, Masons Elks, etc., went to Rush City, Minn., today to attend the funeral of the well-known poet, novelist and dramatist, Franklyn Warner Lee, formerly of this city, and at the time of his death editor of the Rush City Press.

Mr. Lee was most widely known as the author of the farce "The Star-Gazer."

which Joe Ott played for two seasons, and also from the fact that he rewrote the extravaganza, "All Baba," for Manager David Henderson, of Chicago. The funeral services were conducted jointly by the Masons and the St. Paul Press Club, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Mr. Streeter, Episcopal, of White Bear Lake. Flags were at half-mast at Rush City and the funeral was one of the largest and

MANY PEOPLE CANNOT DRINK
Coffee at night. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. For Grain-O does not stimulate; it nourishes, cheers and feeds. Yet it looks and tastes like the best coffee. For nervous persons, young people and children Grain-O is the perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a package from your grocer to-day. Try it in place of coffee 15 and 3c.
